

RULES OF THIS DUNNY

- ❖ Always keep the door closed - the neighbours really can see in and the dirty buggers might start selling tickets to the show.
 - ❖ Watch out for snakes, goannas and frill-necked lizards.
 - ❖ Always lift the lid and check for redbacks before sitting down.
 - ❖ Always inform someone before you use the dunny - just in case.
- ❖ If the dog comes with you make sure he doesn't piddle on the flowers planted around the dunny - they're there for a reason.
 - ❖ Never use the last sheet of newspaper – have some manners and consider the next bloke or sheila – they'll thank you for it.
 - ❖ Never tear out a magazine page halfway through the story.
- ❖ Don't tear anything off the wall - the wind will come through the holes.
- ❖ If it rains and the dunny floods, use the plank provided to reach the box -
BE CAREFUL YOU DON'T SLIP.
 - ❖ It's probably not a good idea to sit for too long in a lightening storm.
 - ❖ In case of bushfire you're on your own....
 - ❖ Keep your subscriptions up - save the best magazines for visitors.
 - ❖ Remove all mags that might cause Aunt Matilda to chuck a wobbly.
 - ❖ Always change the fly-paper before visitors come.
 - ❖ Make sure you spray regularly for mozzies.
- ❖ If you do fall in make sure you make peace with the Bloke Upstairs on the way down – fair dinkum... no one else will hear.
- ❖ Don't be tempted to chuck something in to test the depth of the hole -
TRUST THAT IT IS A VERY LONG WAY DOWN.
- ❖ That gun behind the door is there in case of an emergency. If it doesn't fire and you are "excrementally challenged"... send the dog for help.
- ❖ Smells bad? Stick your head in the hole... if you can see something wavy and shiny... go bush for a few days while they dig a new dunny.
 - ❖ NEVER, EVER STRIKE A MATCH IN THIS DUNNY.
